

Frequently Asked Questions

How come every time I exit my MetaTrader 4 the indicator disappears?

The indicator only works when the server is Online since it's protected by a license key. However, as long as you keep your MetaTrader 4 running all the time. The Indicator will stay on your chart. To fix this, simply right click > Select Indicator list > Double Click the Noble Impulse Indicator and click ok.

Best Hours for Forex Trading

Choosing when to trade the Forex market is extremely important. Along with your strategy, this factor will have a huge impact on your chances of winning. Not every hour of the day is equally good for trading. The best time to trade is when the market is most active. Some movements are seen during the Sydney and Asian sessions. But the London and New York sessions have the most significant fluctuation.

Which Strategy Works the Best?

We suggest that you explore all the strategies. From Basics, Intermediate, and Advanced. Once you are able to understand how to properly use each one. We recommend that you apply it all together.

Basics Strategy (High-Risk)

Intermediate Strategy (Medium-Risk)

Advanced (Low-Risk)

Most of the users find the Intermediate strategy to be the most effective out of all three. Because it offers tight stop loss and an adequate profit-taking zone.

Which Timeframe Works the Best?

There's really no right or wrong answer to this question. Everyone has a different style of trading that suits their daily schedule. Most users prefer the 15-Minute and above timeframe.

Our team likes to use 1-Hour timeframe for day trading.

Which Currency Works The Best?

Noble Impulse indicator and Noble Impulse strategy are compatible with all assets including stocks, futures, currency, metals, and cryptocurrency. However, all pairs move differently. Some are extremely volatile like GBP pairs and Gold.
